

Gen. Diaz reviews the United States cavalry at Fort Myer, Va., during his first few days in Washington.

International.

Admiral Beatty, with his aide and Admiral Hugh Rodman, leaving the White House after lunch with President Harding.

National Photo Co.

Crew of the Bluenose, Nova Scotian fishing schooner which won the series of international fishermen's races. Capt. Walters wears white suit.

International.

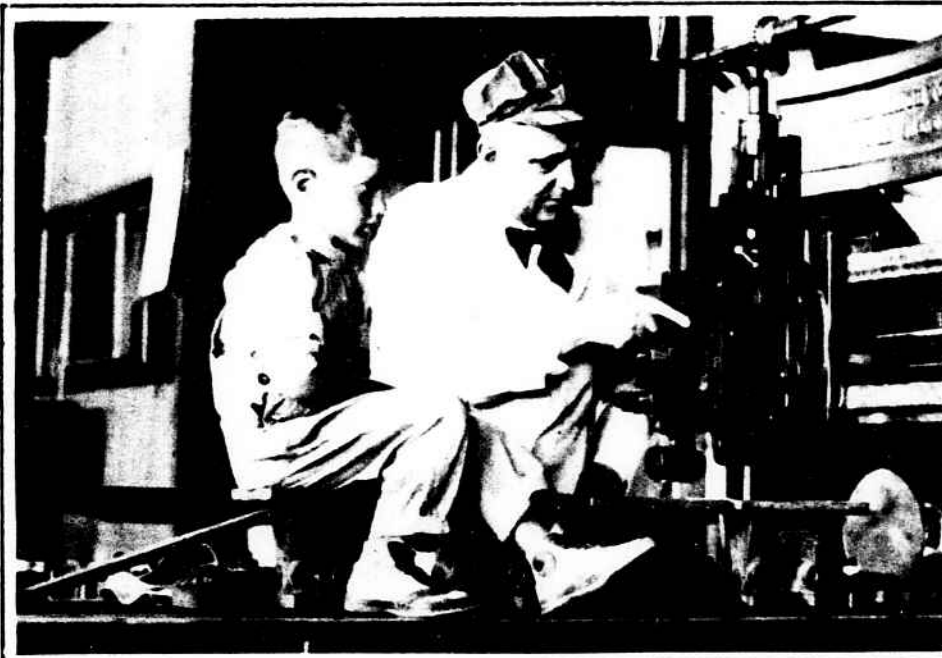

Edmund Dulac, famous portrait painter, completes likeness of Mme. Wellington Koo, wife of Chinese delegate to the arms limitation conference in Washington. Mr. Koo is the Chinese ambassador to England.

Wide World Photo

Senator W. F. Crow of Uniontown, Pa., recently named by Gov. Sproul of Pennsylvania to serve the unexpired term of the late Senator Knox.

National Photo Co.

Secretary of Labor Davis shows his son, Jimmie, Jr., some of the fundamentals of the machinist's trade. Photo snapped in the machine shops of the Moose schools at Mooseheart, Ill.

National Photo Co.

Former leaders of the German war machine memorial services to Bavarian war victims. In center, former quartermaster-general of Germany's former crown prince of Bavaria and now pretender.

Sencra Caritos, Spanish dancer from the Royal Opera House, Madrid, who has an important part in "Spanish Love," a theatrical attraction of the week.

Photo by Ira Schwarz.

Unit of Miss L. S. Ruddick, acting deputy commissioner in charge.